MC SQUARED ENERGY SERVICES LLC RECEIVES ICC APPROVAL

New Illinois-based retail electricity supply company has Alternative Retail Electricity Supplier (ARES) application approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission

Chicago, IL – MC Squared Energy Services, LLC \(mc²\), an Illinois-based retail electricity supply company, announced that its Alternative Retail Electric Supplier (ARES) application was approved today by the Illinois Commerce Commission. Under ICC Order #09-0059, mc² has been granted approval to provide electricity to a variety of commercial and industrial facilities across Northern Illinois in the Commonwealth Edison (ComEd) service territory.

“We are pleased by the ICC’s decision to approve our application,” said Chuck Sutton, president of mc². “Obtaining ICC certification is a requirement to serve customers with electricity supply in the state, and a validation of our company’s capabilities in the deregulated electricity supply market.”
