MC SQUARED ENERGY SERVICES, LLC ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF ILLINOIS RETAIL POWER BUSINESS FROM RRI ENERGY, INC SUBSIDIARY

Accelerates growth of Chicago based electricity supplier

Chicago, IL – MC Squared Energy Services, LLC (mc²) announced today it has reached an agreement with RRI Energy Solutions East, a subsidiary of RRI Energy, Inc. (NYSE: RRI) to purchase substantially all of the assets and liabilities associated with RRI Energy's retail power business in Illinois. The transaction includes the retail customer agreements and supporting wholesale supply positions. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

The transaction includes over 350 service accounts with a forecasted load of 750,000,000 kilowatt-hours of electricity over the remaining term of the customer agreements. The agreements will be integrated into mc²'s Illinois based retail electricity supply business.

"The acquisition of the RRI Energy retail power book complements and accelerates the growth of our retail electricity business, and demonstrates our commitment to serve commercial and industrial customers in northern Illinois," said Chuck Sutton, president of mc². "We look forward to assisting these new customers with our exceptional customer service and innovative power supply products."

mc² currently provides electricity supply products and services to over 1,000 commercial & industrial service accounts in the ComEd service territory. mc², through its Chicago based full service wholesale trading partner, Wolverine Trading, LLC is uniquely positioned to offer customers a full range of reliable electricity supply products, including green renewable energy.
